(This is the contribution Marie A. Keough sent in from the field. Cute, don't you think? C'mon, you other field people. Roll up your sleeves and send us in something. SPAN remembers you--now you remember SPAN.)

WANTED: 3 or 4-room flat or apartment unfurnished. Husband due back from overseas. Call Ste. 534.

SQUIRREL STORY DE LUXE

An amusing nature story comes from Mr. G. E. Keefer, who is improving from his heart attack but still not able to leave his convalescent bed. Some squirrels have learned about his generosity--how he gives peanuts away--and have practically become permanent fixtures on the window sill outside his bedroom.

A good many of his REA friends have been calling on Mr. Keefer, which delights him very much (he says for more of them to come), and to one of them he was explaining how capricious the squirrels were.

"Why," said he, "they even peer in my window, knocking on it for attention!"

Observed the caller, "They are only looking for the nut inside."

NEXT IT WILL BE A LUMBER STRETCHER

What's this about an REA co-op sending in a bona fide purchase order for 50 post holes as reported by a Dallas paper? We quote:

"POST HOLES FOR SALE"

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 26 (AP)—Nineteen post holes are being offered for sale to the highest bidder by the local office of the Defense Plant Corporation.

An accountant checking the list of surplus property came across the inventory reference. He admitted it a tough disposal problem and DPC men frankly predict the government's loss will be total.

Four F.S. We hope J. Warner Pyles recovers from the additional load this put on his desk after the tire story came out.)

SPECIAL NOTICE

In spite of all the appeals that have been made in SPAN and otherwise, only 23 listings have been received by J. Warner Pyles relative to vacancies of rooms, flats, apartments and houses when REAers leave for Washington.

This listing is a sincere effort to help returning servicemen and is conducted exclusively for their benefit. What's wrong with us? Did our interest in the boys stop the minute the war ended? Don't we realize we owe a debt all the money in the world can't pay? Helping the veterans find a place to live is small enough payment, but even in that we seem to be negligent.

Come on, REAers. Let's show consideration for the vets. Let's give them top priority. Call 237 and list your impending vacancy with Mr. Pyles. Do it right away. Do it NOW! While our boys fought for us, they went for days with no roof over their heads. Now that they are coming back, must they still be without shelter? Must they dig more foxholes in order to have a place to sleep?

FOR SALE: Cedar chest, phonograph records (two albums of 12-inch Victor Herbert and Stephen Foster selections), small table, and dishes. Call FO 0298 after 6:30 p.m.

WANTED: Pair ice-skates with shoes attached for child, size 1 or 2. Anyone having anything faintly resembling same or reasonable facsimile thereof, please call Paul Stafford, Ext. 428.

WANTED TO SELL: One man's bowling ball - 16#, 3 finger. See Clarence White, Rm. 898, Arcade Bldg., Extension 597.

Jolts 'n' Volts

Berny Krug has named the apple of his eye, that five-pound son and heir, Stephen H. Krug. Berny hasn't been able to get much acquainted with the lad because the nurses shoo him away. With masks on their faces he says they look like a band of Jesse Jameses and are just as hard to deal with. They brush him aside and heed not his pleas.....

Aunt Gertrude (Krasher) is mighty proud, too, of her new nephew, the illustrious son of Bernie Krug.

I Tilyou's hurry to move to D. C. is understandable. We don't blame him, either.....

After three negatives had been bouncing around the Personnel office for a year, someone finally got the bright idea to have them developed just to find out who they belonged to. Lo! it was Ginny Manoville and two of her girl friends. The mystery of how the negatives ever got in the office, because the pictures were taken eight years ago, is still bothering Ginny and, to pacify her friends have engaged the mighty sleuth-foot Margaret Morris to track down the culprit.....

Quote: "Even a fire can bring out the best of people—" (end of quote) as we saw those REA spectators on Olive Street Tuesday morning.....

The other morning while driving to work, Merle Leise was remarking to the boys in the car pool about his ability to obtain a new tire (practically in the bag, mind you) when suddenly BANG!!!! What were you saying about the new tire, Leise?... Jeanne Harris is a new employee (one of those 90-day wonder appointments), substituting for Ann Korn as Glenn Kiff's secretary. Poor Kiff. He has lost so many of his mapping section gang that he finds it difficult to continue in business.....

The jolly old Rate Section had quite a turn-out last Saturday night at Ernie Moldenhauer's house. The party was in honor of Seaman 2/c Jack Taylor who spent a couple of days leave with the REA bunch. If any of the fellas were seen limping around the office this week, it may be from the muscular efforts they put into their polkas. The success of the party was due largely to the hostess, Peggy Fotsch.....

Will Lewis stopped in all be-decked with ribbons last week. He has been out in the Pacific for quite a spell. He is very nervous about meeting his new daughter, whom he has never seen. Will (Tex) is now a full lieutenant in the Navy and expects to be discharged in the not too distant future.....

Warner T. Smith has been discharged from the Marine Corps. He will join up with us in Washington. Walter Boster Region 9, and Bob Knox Region 7 are leaving REA for Army Service Forces.....

Mrs. Bud Snyder (Suzy Haynes to old timers) is resting within the shadow of the stork's wing. She was formerly Kendall Foss' secretary but married a telephone man and now lives in Washington. Have you seen the sparkler on that all important finger on Corinne Liles' left hand?.....

The absent minded professor doesn't have anything on Connie Hull. Intently interested in watching the firemen last Tuesday she failed to notice a policeman sitting astride a horse in the middle of the sidewalk. Three guesses with which half of the horse she collided.....we understand the policeman is still laughing. Hull had only one comment to make and that was, "The sidewalks, are no place for a horse".....

Mary Beachboard paid her friends in REA a visit recently. She is now located in Little Rock, Ark. Martha Rice was another one stopping in for auld lang syne.....

Departing REA'ers: Kathleen Dowd joining the ranks of RFC and Mary Sears leaving for War Records soon.....

Correction Please! All four of the Legal Division bowling teams won last week. Bowling enthusiasm is almost a unanimous trait in Legal.....

Henry Bauer, ex-Lt. in the Coast Guard, slipped quietly back into the groove in Legal on Nov. 20. Henry looks fine with that extra ten pounds.....

VACATIONERS

R. Wade has returned from a vacation at his home in West Virginia.

Dev. Killion took off on vacation in his "ole jalopy."

Minna Komiss spent Thanksgiving holiday in Chicago. Pauline Lange is planning on a vacation in Kansas. Noble Wrinkle and Clate Cox went to the Missouri-Oklahoma football game in Columbia, Missouri.

Fred and Alta Hamlin spent Thanksgiving Day at Alta's home in Kansas.

Nell Bowers flits off to Tennessee for Thanksgiving.

Ethel and Ernie Moldenhauer, Butch, Ann Louise and the baby (as well) as Bernie Gevers spending the holiday in Manitowoc, Wisconsin.

FIELD PERSONNEL

Fieldman E. Vere Stalcup, Reg. 6, COO has been in the St. Louis office for three weeks and is so quiet no one told you about it before.

Ruby Morehead Region 7, is returning to the field after a weeks stay in the St. Louis office.

JOLTS 'N' VOLTS

Covering the Arcade front provides excitement at times for Bob East. Passing the big fire Tuesday morning he started to cross the street only to find himself suddenly plucked from the curb and dumped on the other side by a fire truck which had just arrived. The crew evidently regarded him as an unnecessary nuisance to be disposed of if possible.....

"Grandma" Nold is floating around these days with a very superior attitude because her new grandson is an exceptionally wonderful baby....of course! Ann Klinkhardt is now Mr. O'Brien's secretary, taking Geneva Palmer's place.....

Gene Taylor and Ray Cannot attended a wiring meeting in Nebraska.....

Norman Plotka and his secretary, Mildred Sipperly, leave for Washington, D. C. on December 1, the first from Legal to depart for the new station. Mildred is eager to get there—she's going to fly. Lorraine Zimmerle formerly in Region 8 Finance, is now writing advertising copy for Radio Station WTMV. Lorraine tells us that she feels guilty accepting her pay check each week since she has so much fun earning it. Nice work if you can get it.....

A rose by any other name would smell as sweet. The fragrance of Region 8, Finance, we must admit, is due to a very luscious perfume from Paris, France. We're not mentioning any names, it isn't necessary. Just follow your nose — ummmmm! ..... Who could resist joining the REAAA (membership fee only $1.00) when such things as tires are made available thru Surplus War Property.....

Lillian Farley is willing to buy a $1200. divan or sofa for about $75. — anyone got one to sell?..... That operation L. Farley and C. Cunningham were talking about was on Charlotte's car — not a person, thank goodness!!.....

Our TSD reporter, Zelda Krinowitz, had her sister down from Chicago over Thanksgiving day. She says the main reason she had her down was so she could have something to report for SPAN — news items in her Division are that scarce.....
